All too often, people come up to me and ask, “What did I do to deserve this?” or “Why did G-d have to do this to me?” Of course, there is no genuine answer to this question; there are only approaches that can be used to answer it. Here is a wonderful explanation:

A daughter was telling her mother how everything is going wrong in her life. She explained that she is failing a class in her master’s program. She cried that her boyfriend broke up with her and is now going with her cousin. She shared how upset she was because her best friend was moving all the way across the country. She complained to her mother that she does not have enough money to pay for her car repairs. And to make things worse, she shared that her job would be eliminated in the next couple of weeks.

While her daughter was explaining her tale of woe, her mother was busy baking a cake. When the daughter finished, her mother asked her if she would like a snack. “Absolutely Mom, I love your cake. Maybe that would cheer me up!” she answered. “Ok, honey. Here - have some cooking oil,” her mother offered. “What!” her daughter asked with surprise? “How about a couple of raw eggs?” her mother continued. “Who eats raw eggs? That’s not even healthy!!!” “Would you like some flour then? Or maybe baking soda?” “Mom, are you kidding? That’s ridiculous!”

Her mother finally stopped offering these ingredients and said, “Yes, all those things seem bad all by themselves. But when they are put together in the right way, they make a wonderfully delicious cake! And that is the way it is with your life. You are dealing with some harmful stuff, but overall, won’t you agree that your life has been particularly good?”

This mother is a wise woman. She understands that G-d works the same way. Many times, we wonder why G-d lets us go through bad and tough times. But when G-d puts all these things together, on balance, they work for our good! We must trust G-d even more and, eventually, all this will make sense.

As we spend some time waiting for the spring and warm weather to return this year, we can take comfort in knowing that G-d sends us flowers every spring. G-d sends us a sunrise every morning and a sunset every night. G-d sends us children and grandchildren. G-d sends us so many wonderful ingredients that bring us a god life. But most important, even though G-d can live anywhere, G-d chooses to live in YOUR heart.

May we have a warm and safe winter, stay healthy and remember to call each other, zoom or facetime with each other and say hi regularly. Stay focused on the little moments of joy that we share together in our lives – Every moment matters we all matter. And as we come closer to the next time that we can share a warm walk together on the bike path or a picnic in the warmth of summer with family and friends, remember, we have each other and if we all work together always keeping in mind that G-d is watching us and with us remember, if we work together and remember each other, “together as a congregation we can make anything happen.”

Have a safe and warm winter, see you in Shul.

Although we faced some bumps in the road, we at TNT worked hard to look forward and not back. The past few months, we experienced how a community rallies together. When we lost our heat, members of the House Committee led by John Dunn and Ed Gustat, ensured that the project was completed efficiently. Our neighbors at Temple Tiferet Shalom, graciously accepted our request to move the Community Thanksgiving service to their “house”. Our Temple community showed their support for others as toys, books, jackets, coats, hats, gloves, and pajamas were donated for those in need. Our Temple family joined our religious school students as we lit the Chanukiah on the second night of Chanukah. We can always count on our TNT family for so many mitzvot.

This month we kvelled as families led us, from their homes, the lighting of the Chanukiah and as students from our religious school led the Friday night service. TNT hosted a Shabbat Shalom Circle and I was so fortunate to witness as Sandy and Harold Hoffman renewed their wedding vows on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. So many wonderful simchas!

As you know, zoom/ in person services are available every day/ night. We made the decision to count folks on zoom and in person when counting a minyan. This is true except for Shabbat morning. If we do not have a minyan present on Shabbat morning, we will not take out the Torah. If you are comfortable joining us in person, please consider this mitzvah.

Daily we read, “My G-d keep my tongue from evil, my lips from lies. Help me ignore those who slander me. Let me be humble before all. Open my heart to your Torah so that I may pursue your mitzvot. Frustrate the designs of those who plot evil against me. Make nothing of their schemes.”

I know some question decisions that have been made. I know some point fingers and blame folks for whatever. I know some continue to practice lashon harah. As we approach a new secular year, I hope we embrace the words of this prayer. We are here for each other. Egos are left outside and no one has a personal agenda. We work towards strengthening our TNT community.

The Lubarsky Family wishes you a happy and healthy new year.

L'hitraaot,
Adele

Our Congregation is most responsive to help and to give. This year at Kol Nidre we collected 118 bags of food distributed to Food Pantries in Danvers, Peabody and Jewish Family Services.

The coat drive in November even with the pandemic brought in 110 coats and 46 accessories. When we brought coats to Haven, people at the pantry waiting for food came to us and quickly took them. The sad news was there were no coats for two children and an infant that were there. We passed the word to Beth, who the next day sent out a flier. The following week we brought 12 children's coats to Haven, 6 of which were new. Four more coats were delivered to Haven by Members and we further received three large bags of children's coats, gloves, and hats. TNT really came through.

We also participated in the Jewish Family and Children's gift cards drive to help families celebrate Chanukah and the Season. TNT members contributed to the JF&CS collection of ~500 gift cards that were distributed to their client families. Attached is a letter received by the Temple thanking TNT members for their many donations throughout the year. In the letter it was noted that there is a need for volunteers to help with distribution at the food pantries. On the North Shore, the pantry is held one Sunday a month at Temple Sinai. The link is below if you would like to volunteer.

https://www.jfcsboston.org/About/Community- Programs/Upcoming-Events/family-table-distribution-day-schedule

The toy drive with the Religious School for Citizen's Inn was very successful. In the lower level at Haven, there were Tables set up with an impressive display of toys from TNT and other groups within the city. Clients could then pick the toys that met their family needs to make for a more joyous seasonal celebration.

Every Monday, we are delivering meals in Peabody to shut ins who can't get to Haven on their own. We are pleased that there now are four families involved so that we each average a delivery once a month.

UPCOMING: We are in the process of planning a new sock drive which will be announced shortly.
Here’s what’s been happening in the Religious School…(in person and on Zoom)

From the classroom of Morah Alyssa
- Bet/Gimel: We have been learning the Hebrew letters, sounds, and vowels and studying the Shema and V’ahavta. We also learned about how there are many different blessings, and that some blessings we are showing thanks for things we have, while other blessings command us to do things.
- Dalet/Hay: We have been freshening up on our Hebrew letter and vowel recognition. We also studied the Barechu, learned about the different blessings we say over food and about the Shehecheyanu.
- Vav/Zayin: We have been focusing on the Ashrei and what it means to be happy and on L’Cha Dodi and why we are excited for Shabbat to come. We studied the HafTorah blessings and also how the Prophets are truthful and righteous people.

From the classroom of Morah Jocelyn (Bet-Zayin)
- We learned about several Jewish holidays and how they are celebrated; especially about Hanukkah.
- Everyone made their own dreidel out of clay to bring home prior to learning remotely.
While on zoom, each class worked on a project: Bet/Gimel wrote their own Hanukkah story together as a class. Daley/Hay wrote up directions on how to play and Vav/Zayin students made a Tik Tok to Hava Nagila all about Hanukkah.

From the classroom of Morah Andrea (Bet-Zayin)
- Each class we talk about Acts of Loving Kindness and about how we have been good during the previous week. What Mitzvah did we do? Did we make cards to express condolences? Did we make thank you cards? Did we donate to a good cause?
- We talked about different Mitzvot and their importance: Return what is not yours–We talked about how it is important to return something that is not yours. We do not believe in finders keepers, losers weepers; Be good to your friends–We talked about bullying and being kind and accepting. We discussed telling secrets and betrayal; Be good to your parents–We discussed how we should be helpful to our parents. How we should respect them. How we can do things around the house; Be good to the world–We discussed recycling, planting trees, pollution. Why do we need to take care of the world?
- Different types of Tzedakah – Giving of money, items, time. Tzedakah does not have to be only money; it can be about volunteering and giving of oneself. We talked about the toy drive we just had at TNT.

From the classroom of Moreh Dan (Bet-Zayin/Bible)
- We have been reviewing and diving deeper into the story of Moses and the Exodus out of Egypt, discussing how the Hebrew midwives Shifrah and Puah displayed acts of great courage (G’vurah). We have also been discussing what leadership (Manhigut) qualities Moses possesses during the stories of the exodus out of Egypt and Mount Sinai.
- We discussed what community means and identified the different communities our students are a part of everyday (family, temple, school, world). They brainstormed how they could help their different communities and were given a front row seat to this concept as they watched some of their parents and other members of the temple community clean up the playground outside the classroom window. A truly perfect impromptu presentation of helping your community for them to behold.
- Students are currently working on a poster project, researching famous Jewish people that they admire and presenting what leadership qualities they have. Some of the well thought out choices are: Albert Einstein, Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, Mayim Bialik, Adam Sandler and Stan Lee.

From the classroom of Morah Beth and Morah Susan (Gan/Aleph)
- Each week we are learning more Hebrew letters and are on our way to learning all of the Aleph/Bet whether in person or on Zoom! We are creating a binder with the letters and hints to how they sound. We learned about the Fall Holidays (after they had come and gone) and almost all about Hanukkah via zoom. We did get a chance to practice the letters nun, gimel, hey and shin, by playing dreidel before we went to remote learning. While on zoom, Morah Beth shared her extensive dreidel collection with us!
- We created hand motions to accompany the V’ahavta, which they shared at the student led service. This unique interpretation of the V’ahavta, helped students to quickly understand the meaning of the prayer. New this year…
- “Guest Teaching” is an innovative program! On several Sundays, we will have “Guest Teachers” lead selected topics about Israel/living Jewishly giving our students an opportunity to learn more about their Jewish heritage and/or gain a connection with Israel. Thank you to Adele Lubarsky for being our first Guest teacher and leading the students in making cards for the Caring Cards project and rain shakers for Sukkot. Thank you also to Laila Chamiel for discussing the origin of Taboulle and then preparing delicious samples to enjoy! And thank you to Gavriel Sharon for leading a discussion about needing a good mindset and being kind to be in the army. We hope our guest teachers will return for an encore!
Thank you to everyone who donated to our Toy, Coat and Pajama drives. Many children will be receiving gifts, coats and pajamas because of you and they will surely be smiling this holiday season.

Our student’s led Friday evening Service was held on December 17. What a wonderful evening full of joy and kvelling. We hope you were either there in person or on Zoom! Our students were amazing!

Don’t forget to visit our website: https://templenertamid.org/our-school/ and check out what’s been happening in our fabulous school.

Wishing everyone a safe, happy and healthy New Year!

Gan/Aleph Zoom Show & Tell Chanukah
Welcome to 2022, the new year according to the secular calendar. As we all know, the new year begins with the month of January. Many people have an aversion to the month of January, finding it long, cold, dreary, and depressing. Granted, January can be a long cold month, with its 31 days of average daytime temperatures in the mid-30s, and the shorter days, bringing with them early hours of darkness. However, that does not mean that January needs to be dreary and depressing. Being a perennial optimist, I always look to find the good in everything. Therefore, here is the good we can all look for in the month of January.

1. January is the time for new beginnings. New beginnings give you a chance to leave the past year’s mistakes behind. Instead of dwelling on the past, it is a time to develop a positive outlook on life and begin the process of making each day a fulfilling one. January is the time to set achievable goals for yourself and begin the work to bring them to fruition.

2. While it is true that January can be cold and dreary, it is also common in New England to have a January thaw. The January thaw gives us a reprieve from the harsh New England winter and reawakens in us the reassurance that winter will not last forever.

3. As we are experiencing January thaw, Israel is enjoying the beginning of spring. Tu B’Shvat, the 15th day of the Hebrew month of Shevat and the New Year of the Trees, falls on January 17. This is a day for going out to the fields and planting new trees, for rejoicing in the blossoming of the sh’kadeya, the almond tree, which is the first tree to bloom in Israel as a sign of spring. While we cannot participate in these outdoor activities, we can take the time to do some indoor planting. It is a custom to plant parsley seeds at Tu B’Shvat that will grow into edible parsley plants in time for our Passover Seder. There are also other customs associated with Tu B’Shvat that we can follow. These include eating fruits grown in Israel. Some of the variations on this tradition are eating 15 different fruits to represent the 15th of Shevat, or eating items representing the seven species mentioned in the Torah as the fruits of the land of Israel. These include wheat, barley, grapes, figs, pomegranates, olives, and dates. These seven species were the staple foods consumed by the Jewish people in the land of Israel during biblical times. Tu B’Shvat has also become a time for seders, similar to the Passover seder. A Tu B’Shvat seder may include 4 cups of wine to represent the 4 seasons, 4 questions, and readings about nature and the environment. Our celebration of Tu B’Shvat shows our dedication to forging a connection with the land of Israel. Tu B’Shvat is also a good time to initiate a project in your own home that connects you to the environment.

4. Sisterhood Shabbat will be held on January 21, providing us with the means to satisfy our spiritual needs as we lead the congregation in prayer. Please contact Esther Kaufman for a part.

5. January is also the traditional month for our annual Combined Jewish Women’s Organizations Meeting. This year, the meeting will take place on January 31 when we will welcome Manginah, A Brandeis Co-Ed Acappella group. To quote Manginah’s flyer, their set includes “music from Jewish liturgy and prayers, American Jewish songwriters and parodies of popular American songs.” The music they perform is arranged by the members. The program will be available in person and on Zoom. This program will satisfy our need for entertainment and culture. These are five good reasons to appreciate January. As we leave January and enter February, we can continue to be grateful for the goodness in our lives. It will be time for our Tealea Tea, an annual event to benefit a social service agency in the community. Watch your mail for your teabag and send in your donation to help those in need.

Wintertime may be cold and dark. However, by approaching every day with a positive attitude, we can make the new year bright and spread warmth throughout our families and community. I wish you all a happy and healthy new year.

B’Shalom,
Esther Kaufman
Recording Secretary

Lappin Foundation’s Holocaust Education Series Presents

DRAWN TO ACTION:

The Art of Dr. Seuss & Arthur Szyk

presented by Gregg Philipson

Tuesday, January 4, 7:30 p.m. ET

Suess and Szyk, among the most prolific anti-Hitler and anti-Axis political cartoonists during WWII and the Holocaust, were propaganda artists united for a common cause, the defeat of the fascism at home and abroad. Explore how these two men of different faiths used their creative talents to help defeat American isolationism and expose fascists and anti-Semites living in America.

Viewing many original artifacts and art work from the Gregg and Michelle Philipson Collection and Archive make this a powerful visual experience.

The program is free and everyone is welcome.

Register for the Zoom link at LappinFoundation.org.
